Then what's your great plan??

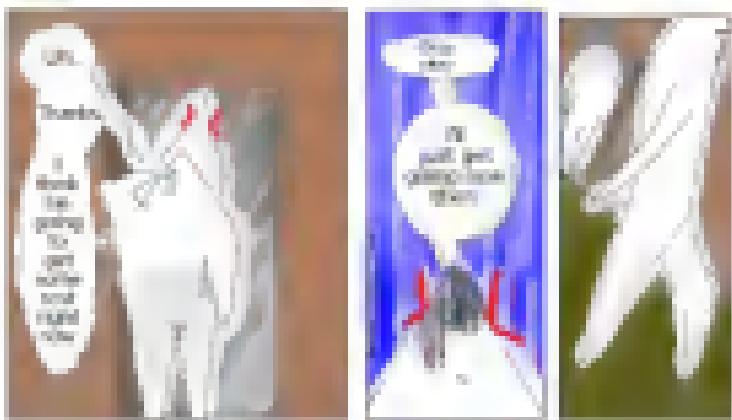

The prophet of FREEDOM

VREDRICK

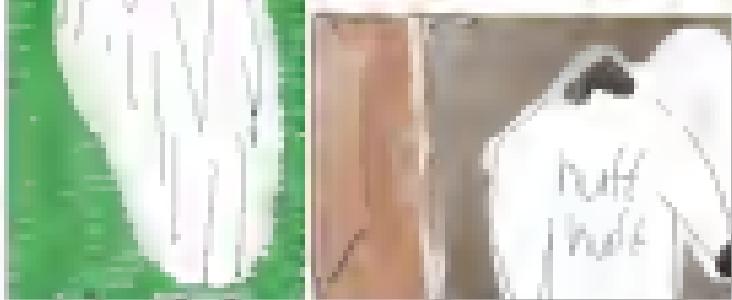

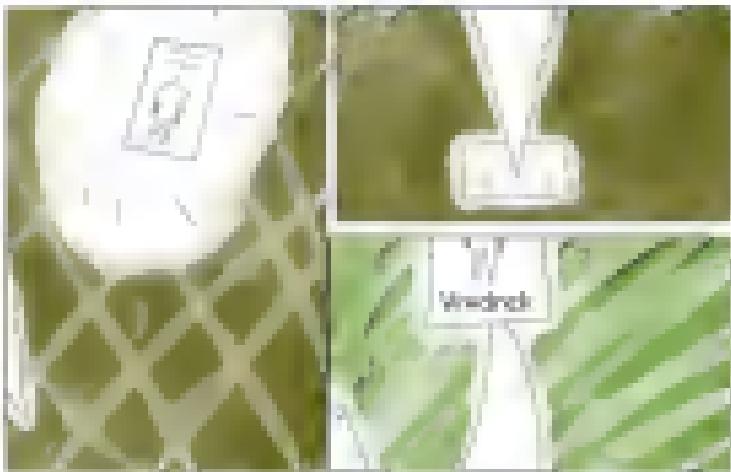

Today, the radical Vredrick, was executed. He had been trying to get an exodus going. He wanted to leave the library.

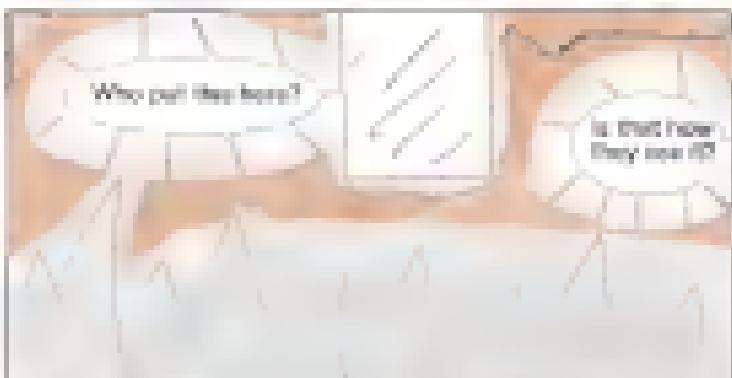

I don't understand why someone would do that. It's safe here and we're meant to protect this place. To not do so is to denounce yourself as a paper person. Personally, I smiled when I heard Vredrick's cry of pain because I knew we made the library a safer place.
